Lesson Objective

Your children will learn that they are encouraged to tell others about Jesus.

Lesson Overview

Philip meets an Ethiopian, a man from a far away country in Africa. Philip explained what he was reading in his Bible. The man became a follower of Jesus.

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

PRAYER

This is a specific prayer written for this Bible story program that you may pray with your children. It may be prayed before you tell the story, after, or whichever time works best for you.

Have your children hold hands, or touch elbows if they are not comfortable holding hands. Ask the children to repeat or “echo” each line after you.

Dear Jesus (echo)

Thank you for your love (echo)

That we can read about in the Bible. (echo)

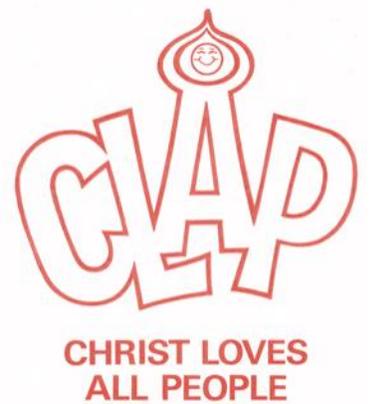

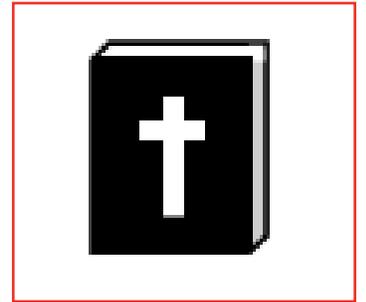

Help us to understand your message (echo)

And to share it with everyone. (echo)

Amen. (echo)

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

BIBLE STORY

This lesson will help children explore the story of how Philip shared the Good news of Jesus' love for all people with a man from Ethiopia who was an official from the court of the queen of Ethiopia in Africa.

Name pronunciations are in bold brackets after the first time a character's name appears.

The Story

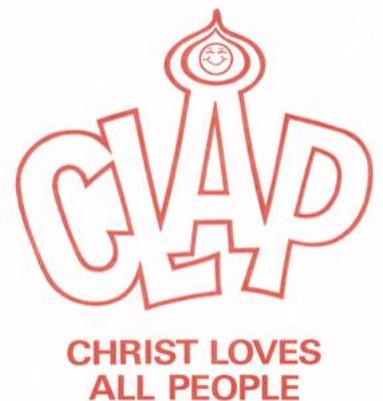

One day a man from Ethiopia was traveling in his chariot. Ethiopia is a country in Africa. A chariot is like a small wagon that is pulled by a horse. He was traveling in the country of Israel. That's the country where Jesus had lived.

Philip was one of Jesus' disciples. He was traveling on the same road as the Ethiopian man. The Ethiopian was sitting in his chariot and reading from a scroll. At that time, they didn't have books like we do. They had scrolls. The paper was very long and it rolled up on each end.

Philip asked what he was reading. The Ethiopian said he was reading from Isaiah. Isaiah is a book in the Bible. He had a problem. He didn't understand what he was reading.

Philip jumped into the chariot. They started to read the scroll together. The Ethiopian man read a few sentences. Then Philip explained what it meant. He told him all about Jesus.

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

The Ethiopian asked Philip to tell him more about Jesus. Soon the man said he believed in Jesus. He knew that Jesus loved all people. He could love everyone, too.

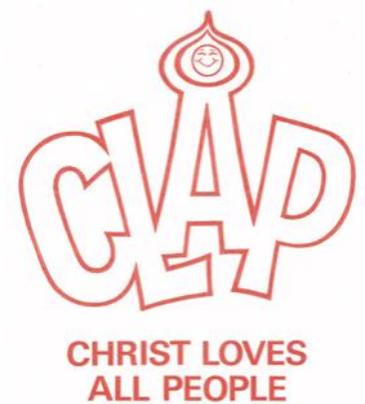

He wanted to become a follower of Jesus. He wanted to share the good news of Jesus' love just like Philip shared with him.

Philip was one of the first people to share the message of Jesus with others. Soon many others were telling about Jesus' love. When stories about God and Jesus were written down, they became the Bible.

People have been reading these stories for many, many years. I'm very happy that we are reading these stories together. What Bible stories are your favourites? (Allow for answers.)

Keep sharing them just like Philip did with the Ethiopian!

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

CRAFTS

There are two crafts that come with this story. We have included the materials for you to use with your children, and a video for you to watch that will teach you both how to make the craft. The video will be on a DVD or thumb-drive.

ACTIVITIES

In this section, you will find fun activities to do with your children. These are good, active games to help children move around and get out their energy before quieting down again. Many of these games require large groups of children.

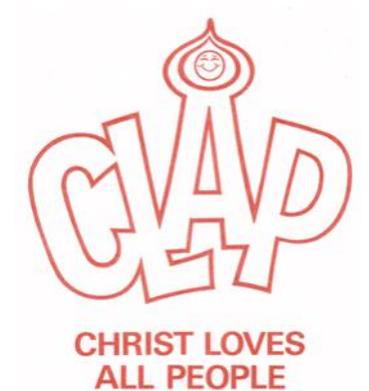

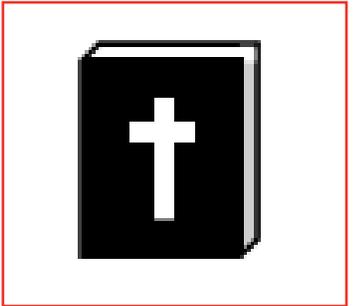

Penguin Shuffle

Have the children divide into three or more teams. Have them line up one behind the other. Give the first child in line a bean bag. You may also use a large pom-pom or a plastic egg. This will be their “egg.” Have the child put the bean bag on top of their feet. The first person on each team will shuffle across the play area and back. If they drop their egg, they must return to the beginning and start again. Once they successfully bring their egg back, they give it to the next child in line. The first team of penguins to take all their eggs across the play area and back is the winner.

Bear and Crab Relay

Divide children into two or three teams. Have one half of the group stand on one side of the play area. Have the other half stand on the other side. Assign one side to be bears and the other side to be crabs.

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

You may also choose other animals such as rabbits or ducks.

The first child on each bear team must race to their crab team. They must walk like a bear. They will only use their feet and hands, with their back in the air. When they get to the other side, they will tag the first crab. That child will race back to the bear team like a crab. They will sit on the floor and raise up on their feet and hands to move. Continue until each team has switched sides. You may have them go back as the opposite animal if the children want to continue the game.

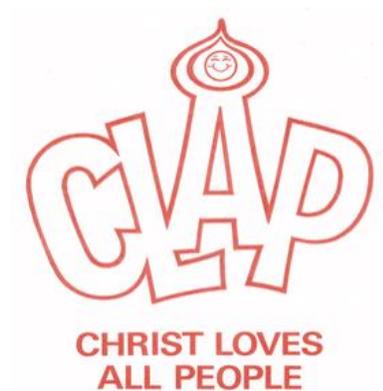

Escape The Lions

According to the Canadian Baptist Ministry, Escape the Lions familiarizes children with Swahili words and common animals that roam Kenya. Kenya is a country in Africa.

Start the game by having the children stand in a circle. The children in the circle are called “mtu.” (MOO-too) This is the Swahili word for “people.” Swahili is the language in many parts of Africa. Choose a child to be the lion.

Place a bean bag or other object in the center of the circle. This is the lion’s treasure. The mtu tries to take the lion’s treasure without getting tagged by the lion. When a child gets tagged, they have to return to the circle and wait for another mtu to try to take the lion's treasure. You may also play with the option that any tagged children sit out until the next round or game.

The child who takes the lion's treasure back to the circle without being tagged becomes the next lion.

Bible Verse to Remember Twister Game

Spread out a large white sheet that you will receive in this Bible story pack. It will be a large square. Have your children help tape it down on the corners and sides.

Then draw three spaced out vertical lines, and three spaced out horizontal lines to make a grid. The grid should have 16 "squares" all together. After this, your children can help write down parts of the Philip and the Ethiopian Bible Verse to Remember, on the squares. It should look something like this:

GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES

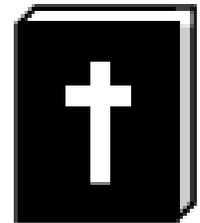

After this, have the children colour the squares four different colours with the crayons provided. Each row should be a different colour. For example, “Go to the people” squares would be all one colour—maybe red, or another colour depending on the colours of crayons you receive. The “of all nations” squares would then be all another colour. Keep colouring until all the squares are filled in.

GO TO THE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES
GO TO THE PEOPLE	OF ALL NATIONS	AND MAKE THEM	MY DISCIPLES

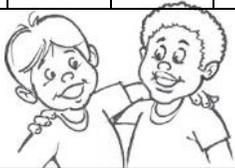

Now you’re ready to play! Call out a colour and what (right or left) hand or foot the children should use to touch the correct square. For example, say: “Right foot red.” All the children then must put their right foot on a red square. When all have their feet in the right place, read what the square says. Continue changing the colours and hands or feet until you have a laughing pile of children!

When your children are finished, have them stand around the board and repeat the Bible Verse to Remember together.
